ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We are honoured to be on the ancestral lands of the Dharawal and Wodi Wodi people. We would like to acknowledge the First Nations as the traditional custodians of the continent, whose cultures are among the oldest living cultures in human history.

We pay respect to Elders past, present and emerging.

WELCOME

Our region has always been a favourite destination for people seeking the classic coastal getaway; unwinding on one of our unspoilt beaches, exploring waterfalls and rainforests, motoring along country lanes or simply enjoying a coffee while people watching in one of our historic towns and villages.

In fact, unwinding and reconnecting may well be the themes for 2021. Relaxing away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. Reconnecting with the real world and real people, after the isolation of 2020.

Fortunately, we have just what the doctor ordered, in your favourite flavour – whether it's gourmet local food, a good surf break, breathtaking coastal views, zip-lining down the escarpment or maybe just a comfy chair, a good book and some peace and quiet.

Kiama, Gerringong, Gerroa, Jamberoo, Bombo and Minnamurra have all this and more. Just take your time and enjoy.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

We love a curious mind! And we'll do our best to answer any queries you have about our piece of paradise...

Q: Um, how should I pronounce “Kiama”?

A: A very common question! Think of how you would say “I AM A” and it rhymes with that. So, “I AM A visitor to KIAMA”.

Q: What hours is the blowhole open?

A: It's a natural attraction, and is open every day. Contrary to popular belief, they (yes, there are two) are not affected by times or tides, but sea swell and wind direction. For more, see page 12.

Q: Can I see any other blowholes during my stay?

A: Well, if you're here from May to November, you may be lucky enough to see the blowholes of migrating whales. Learn more on page 19.

Q: Any good walks/hikes in the area?

Q: Other ways to explore the region?

A: Absolutely. Throughout this guide, keep an eye out for driving, cycling and walking routes, plus other suggestions to ensure you don't miss the good bits. For public transport timetables see transportsw.info

Q: Where are the good surf spots and can I hire boards?

A: For beach/surf info including patrol times, check out page 16. Board hire is available at surf shops in Kiama and Gerringong. Also consider kayaking or SUPing on Minnamurra River, Kiama Harbour or Seven Mile Beach.

Q: Is Minnamurra Rainforest in Minnamurra?

A: No, you'll find it inland, west of Jamberoo (easily signposted from there) at the start of the Minnamurra River, just 15 minutes from Kiama. See more information on page 20.

Q: Where do I start the Kiama Coast Walk?

A: You can start anywhere along the 20km route, however the official 'start/end points' are Minnamurra Headland in the north and Werri Beach in the south.

Q: Does Kiama have a railway station?

A: It does – located on the aptly named Railway Parade, two minutes from the main street and 10 minutes from the lighthouse/blowhole. Trains come from Minnamurra and Bombo stations in the north and continue south to Bomaderry (Nowra) via Gerringong and Berry.

Q: Are you a dog friendly area?

A: Arf arf arf! (Yes!) And you'll find more info about four-legged family members (including pooch-friendly beaches and reserves) in our Kiama for Families section on page 36.

Q: Why are they called the Cathedral Rocks?

A: Because the rocks are shaped like a burrito. Okay, just kidding, it's obviously because they resemble the spires of a cathedral (albeit a soggy one). Bring your camera.

Q: Is Kiama a good place for fishing?

A: Put it this way – we give fishing enthusiasts the same advice that we give broken-hearted visitors – “there are plenty more fish in the sea!”. Check out page 64 for some fishing spots and advice. (Personally, we consider Kiama quite the catch.)

Q: Is Jamberoo famous for Jam or Roos?

A: Neither. Although live musicians regularly jam at the famous pub and during their annual music festival.

Q: Where can I park my van for the night?

A: While there are currently no freebie spots, you're spoilt for choice with sites in our holiday parks at Surf, Kendalls and Easts Beach, as well as Werri Beach in Gerringong and alongside Crooked River at Gerroa. Top notch, all either on or very near the ocean and 100% human-friendly. See page 59 of our directory for details.

Q: Any other accommodation options?

A: Take your pick – from motels, hotels and resorts through to BnBs and self-contained holiday homes. Just scan the code!

Q: It's raining. What can I do?

A: First, high-five Mother Nature, because rain is celebrated round these parts. And check out our favourite rainy day activities on page 8.

Q: When are the markets held?

A: Craft and produce markets are held on the 3rd Sunday and 4th Saturday in Kiama. Every Wednesday afternoon is the Kiama Farmers' Market. Gerringong markets are the 3rd Saturday and Jamberoo the last Sunday of the month.

Q: If I dug a hole directly through the Earth from Kiama, where would I come out?

A: First up, congrats on those digging skills. But pack your swimsuit, because you'd emerge in the ocean off the coast of Portugal.

Q: Where can I have lunch with a water view?

A: Cafes with water views can be found on Shoalhaven Street overlooking the Harbour, at Blowhole Point, on Manning Street at Surf Beach, on Fern Street in Gerringong and Riverleigh Avenue, Gerroa. Many of these also serve up a good seafood dish or two. See page 61 for dining options.

Q: Should I tell all my friends how great the Kiama area is?

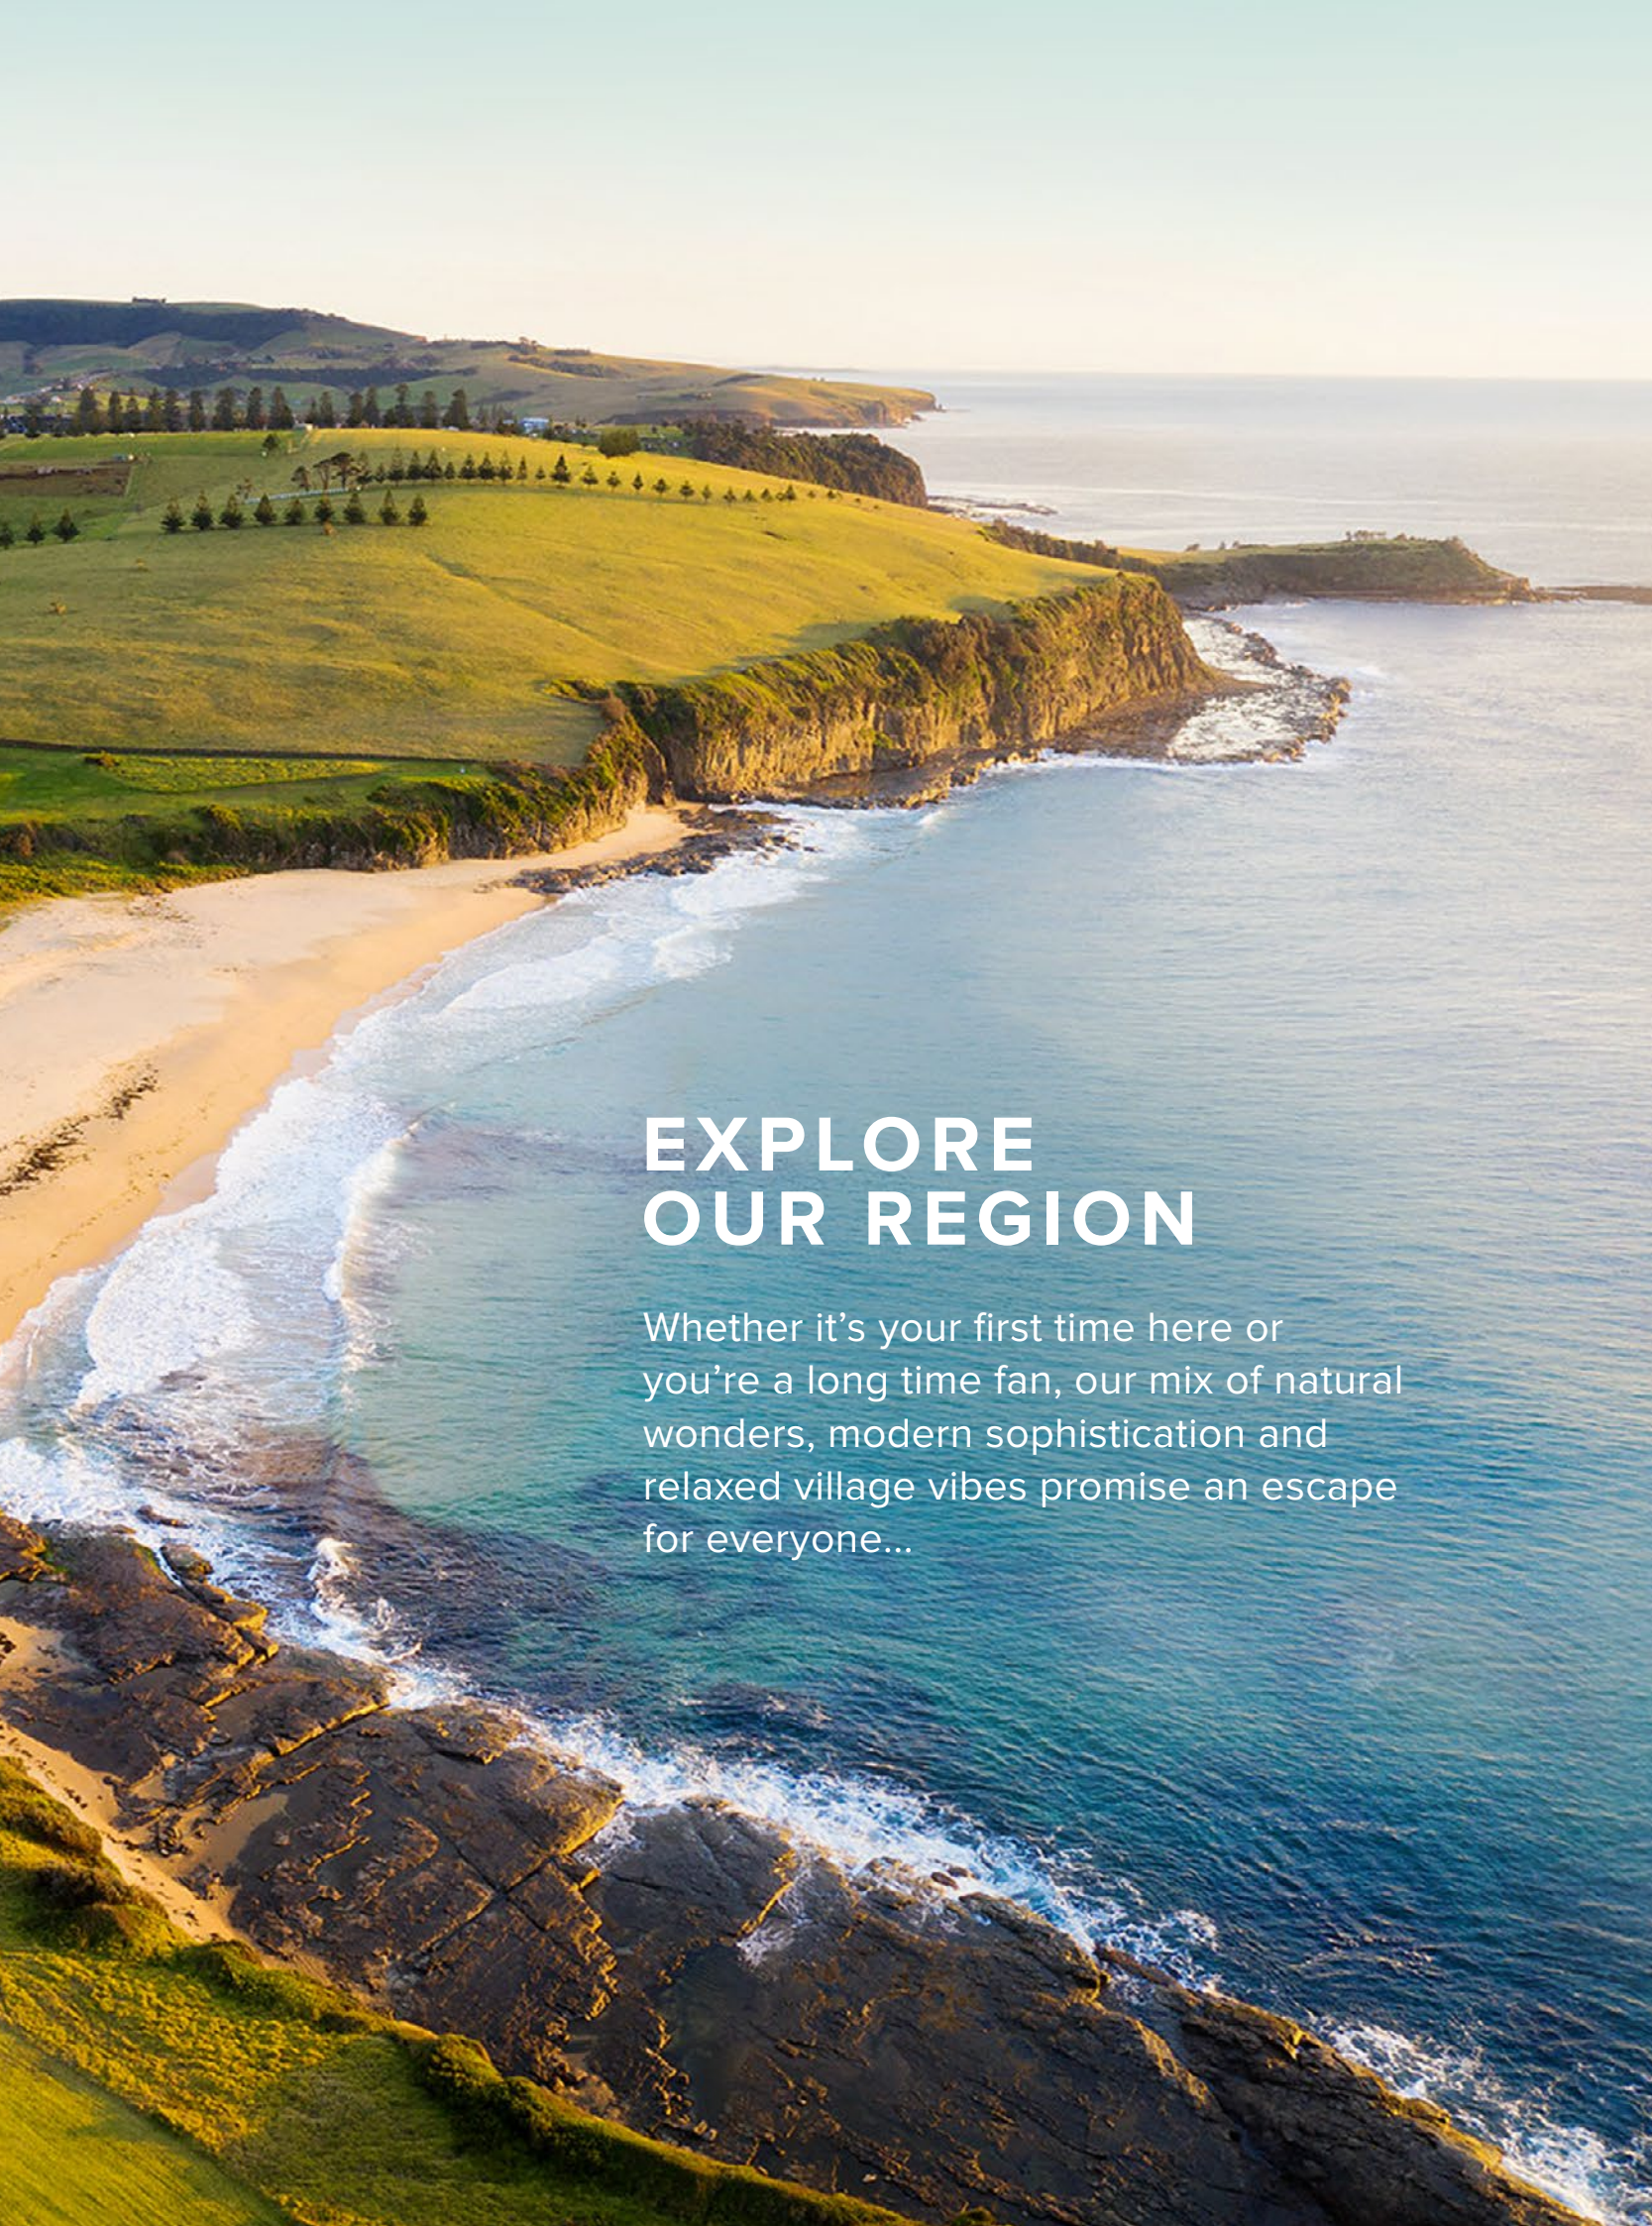

A: Um, did you not live through 2020? Of course you should! After all, they deserve happiness too. And share the love with us by tagging @kiamansw and #kiama (or #gerringong, #gerroa, #jamberoo, #minnamurra, #bombo) in all your photos. You can even use Kiama as a backdrop in your TikTok dances.

Q: Where can I find free maps, local info and super friendly staff?

A: We thought you'd never ask! At the Visitor Information Centre of course – Blowhole Point, Kiama – open daily (except Christmas Day) 9am - 4.45pm.

EXPLORE OUR REGION

Whether it's your first time here or you're a long time fan, our mix of natural wonders, modern sophistication and relaxed village vibes promise an escape for everyone...

TOWNS & VILLAGES

KIAMA:

HUB OF THE REGION

Sandy beaches, a bustling harbour, a selection of brilliant cafes, restaurants, galleries and shops, iconic Norfolk Island Pines and the train lazily rolling into town. If you had any doubt that you were in Kiama, the lighthouse and famous “whoosh” of Australia's biggest blowhole would confirm it!

Kiama is the largest town in the region, with its centre laid out between four beaches and everything within easy walking distance. A classic coastal destination where you'll feel just as comfortable dressed up or barefoot. Blessed with undeniable natural beauty and offering all the conveniences and finer things in life that you can expect from a larger destination, it's an enduring and favourite escape.

If you need information or advice, you'll find it with the friendly folk at the Visitor Information Centre, on Blowhole Point near the Lighthouse. (If you end up in the ocean, you've gone too far!)

JAMBEROO:

CHOOSE YOUR ADVENTURE

Flying through lush ancient rainforest on Australia's highest zipline, it's hard to believe that you're just a short drive from Kiama's golden sands.

That's what makes Jamberoo so special – with a mix of different experiences tucked into the foothills and mountaintops of our area's western border. At one end of the spectrum, you'll find the gentle pace of dairy farming life – where cyclists and cattle are the only traffic you're likely to meet. But then, along comes NSW's favourite water theme park (open September to April) as well as the breathtaking waterfalls, treetop walks, hidden pools, panoramic views... and don't forget that zipline.

Nature lovers and walking enthusiasts will also love the many tracks and native flora and fauna on offer here – including towering gums, cedars, tree ferns, wildflowers, lyrebirds, threatened bird species, echidnas, wombats and many more (see page 18). Your next adventure awaits!

GERRINGONG & GERROA:

A BREATH OF FRESH AIR

A short, winding stretch of highway separates Kiama from its twin neighbours to the south. Gerringong deals exclusively in chilled out vibes all year round – where a sunrise surf or dip in the ocean pools remains one of the best ways to welcome a new day.

Meanwhile, nearby Gerroa overlooks the long horizon-kissing curve of Seven Mile Beach National Park. This is a playground for windsurfers and swimmers, as well as being one of Australia's best surfing classrooms thanks to the vast expanse of friendly waves and a gentle sloping sea floor.

The sky just feels bigger down this way; the air cleaner – a place to exhale life's worries. Yet, mixed in with the “laid back feels” there's a vibrant buzz that proudly celebrates its art, surf culture and chillaxing creativity. A timeless holiday spot in a modern world.

MINNAMURRA & BOMBO:

WHERE TIME AND TIDE COMBINE

Kiama's coastline is a wonderland of geological delights, and nowhere is that more evident than along the scenic stretch from Minnamurra to Bombo.

The Minnamurra River marks the northern border – a safe swimming spot and home to kayakers, paddle boarders and anglers alike, all enjoying its sandy shores and tidal personality.

This point also marks the beginning of the spectacular Kiama Coast Walk, immediately offering expansive views that will define the journey south.

Along the way, you'll discover historic indigenous sites, whale watching opportunities, popular surf spots and the famously photogenic Cathedral Rocks and Bombo Headland – where a mix of ocean forces and quarrying have resulted in memorable natural monoliths.

ITINERARIES TO MAXIMISE YOUR STAY...

📍 SADDLEBACK SCENIC LOOP

(DRIVING; 30-60 MINS)

From Blowhole Point, follow Manning Street up past the Service Station and right onto Saddleback Mountain Road.

The road will steadily rise up above Kiama township to a junction with Old Saddleback Road. Turn left and continue about 4km to the Saddleback Lookouts. Great views north from the first lookout and south from another lookout further up. This is also the start point for Hoddles Track, a steep walk accessible via firetrail (see page 20).

Return via Fountaindale Road and into Jamberoo Valley.

📍 GERRINGONG WITH THE WIND

(WALKING; 1-2 HOURS)

Start at the north end of Werri Beach and take the path or the sand all the way south. This is a popular surf spot when the swell is sending it – also offering a rockpool and fascinating rock shelf patterns to explore.

Grab a coffee nearby and enjoy stunning views as you climb Gerringong Headland alongside Tasman Drive. At the top, the cemetery is a dead giveaway – surely one of the country’s most picturesque resting places. Wander (respectfully) down the hill to steps that lead you to Boat Harbour, where you’ll find a picnic area and second rockpool.

The walk into town from here is up via Jupiter Street and north onto Fern Street – back just in time for gallery browsing, boutique shopping and a spot of lunch.

📍 RAIN SUPREME

(DRIVING; TAKE YOUR PICK!)

There’s no reason why rain should dampen your spirits during your stay. For starters, all the outdoor attractions are usually at their best in splashtastic weather – including Minnamurra Rainforest, the blowholes and many of Kiama’s surf spots.

Back indoors, get cosy with a warm cuppa or tasty treat in one of our many quality cafes. Or trade coffee for quaffing with a paddle sampler or tasting sesh at our local microbrewery or winery.

Wet weather is also great for soothing or pampering – and you can find your bliss with a relaxing massage, floatation session or day spa experience.

Kiama Library offers modern surrounds and a range of books, games and magazines. Meanwhile, in Kiama and Gerringong you can enjoy an eclectic mix of boutique and homewares stores as well as art galleries that feature renowned artists – all promising savvy browsers with brilliant buying in any weather!

Finally, enjoy a heated swim, spa, sauna, gym, court hire and more at the Kiama Leisure Centre, or head north to experience a jumbo-sized Qantas 747 tour and aviation history at HARS Museum in Albion Park.

Up this way, your rainy day is also saved with indoor ten-pin bowling, trampolining, go kart and laser tag fun, plus the greater region’s main cinema complex.

📍 GRAND PACIFIC DRIVE

(DRIVING: 50 MINS APPROX TO SEACLIFF BRIDGE)

Grand Pacific Drive spans from Royal National Park to the Shoalhaven. Along the way, it passes through the northern beaches of Wollongong and on to the beautiful coastal towns of Shellharbour, Kiama and the rolling green hills and wineries around Gerringong.

To find out more, including walking the scenic Seacliff Bridge (pictured), scan the QR code.

📍 COASTING THROUGH LIFE

(WALKING: 2.5 HOURS)

Catch the train to Minnamurra Station or drive nearby to the start of the Kiama Coast Walk alongside the mouth of the Minnamurra River. From here, the path rises quickly to reveal panoramic views of the ocean, river and surrounds.

Continue south to Kiama Downs and one street back from the colourful surf club mural, pick up a coffee, seafood, burger or picnic supplies from the local eateries. At the southern end of Jones Beach, explore Cathedral Rocks before stopping at the secluded Boneyard to get your toes wet.

Further on, Bombo Headland offers amazing rock formations due to a combination of nature and quarrying, while nearby North Bombo beach reveals a popular surf break, with Kiama lighthouse visible in the distance. Bombo Station is Australia’s closest to the ocean – allowing you to catch the train back to where you started.

📍 CHASING WATERFALLS

(DRIVING: 2-4 HOURS)

Following the signs for “Tourist Drive 9”, head west from Kiama, meandering through rolling dairy country and picking up a coffee, picnic items or a pub lunch in Jamberoo village.

Continue on and turn off to Minnamurra Rainforest Centre – with its excellent accessible-friendly loop track, longer waterfall walk and visitor centre. From here, wind your way up Jamberoo Mountain Road, emerging atop the escarpment with stops at the Jamberoo Lookout, Illawarra Fly Treetop Adventure, Carrington Falls and Nellies Glen.

On to Robertson (affectionately known as the ‘green heart of the highlands’) and from here you can choose to return via Macquarie Pass or continue on an extended loop taking in the magnificent Fitzroy Falls, quaint Kangaroo Valley, grabbing a donut from Berry on the way back to the coast.

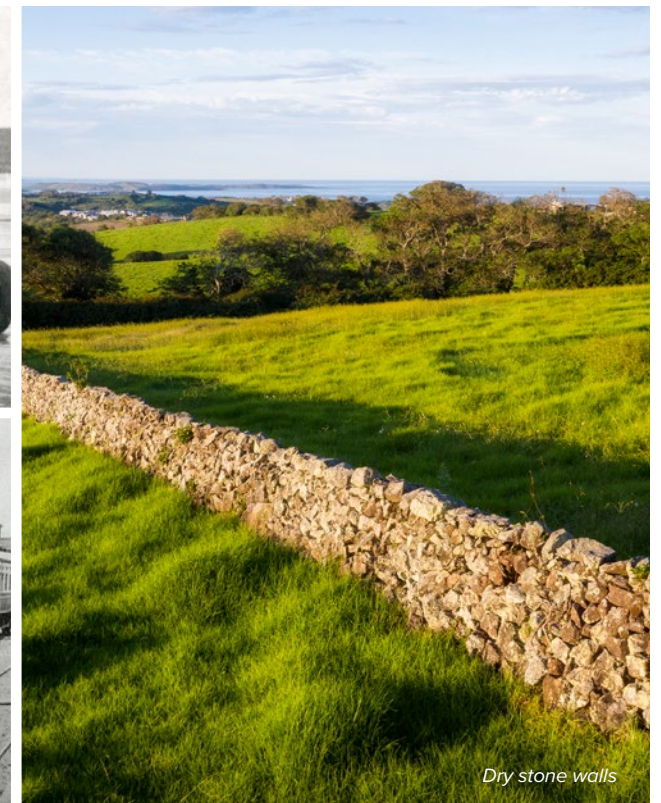

EXPLORE OUR HISTORY

Beyond the holiday nostalgia, the Kiama region has a rich past – with stories around every corner, just waiting to be told...

The Dreaming Poles – created by Stephen Russell and Phyllis Stewart.

"The carvings on the poles depict our traditional foods like fish, abalone, pipis, oysters and kangaroo along with berries and medicines ... the blue represents the salt water people, the black represents the Aboriginal people and the white is out of respect for our ancestors ... the brown represents the earth." – Local Elder Aunty Joyce Donovan

TREES & TRAILS

The Dharawal people were the first to inhabit the Kiama area. The cabbage tree palms, a totem of the nomadic Wodi Wodi and a remnant of the rainforest which once stretched all the way to the coast, endured beyond the cedar cutting of the 19th century. Early tribes passed through the region, following trails on their way to and from Bass Point (Shellharbour) and La Perouse (Botany Bay). One of their traditional camps was near modern-day Jamberoo – which means "track".

ADDING BASS TO MAKE A NOISE

During his journey along the South Coast, George Bass was the first European to set eyes on Kiama, sailing his whaleboat near the now-famous Blowhole in December 1797. He anchored in Black Beach and described a "tremendous noise" nearby. The region's name actually translates from "Kiarama" – an indigenous translation of "where the sea makes a noise".

TREE FELLERS WALK INTO A BAR

In the early days of Sydney, the Kiama region provided timber from its vast Red Cedar forests, which densely blanketed the area. The original cedar cutters arrived in 1812, but it would be 25 years before Kiama's first pub, "The Gum Tree Inn" opened. That's a lot of thirsty work that went unquenched!

EXPLORE MORE STORIES

Scan the code to discover one of our favourite local dreamtime stories.

THE GREAT WALL(S) OF KIAMA

Reminiscent of those found in Britain, there are approximately 400 stone walls lining country roads across the Kiama area – most of them built by a ploughman named Thomas Newing between the 1860s and 1920s. "Stones are like people," he is reported to have said. "Some are good to work with, they fit in anywhere, but others are cranky, you've got to humour 'em."

ON THE RAILS

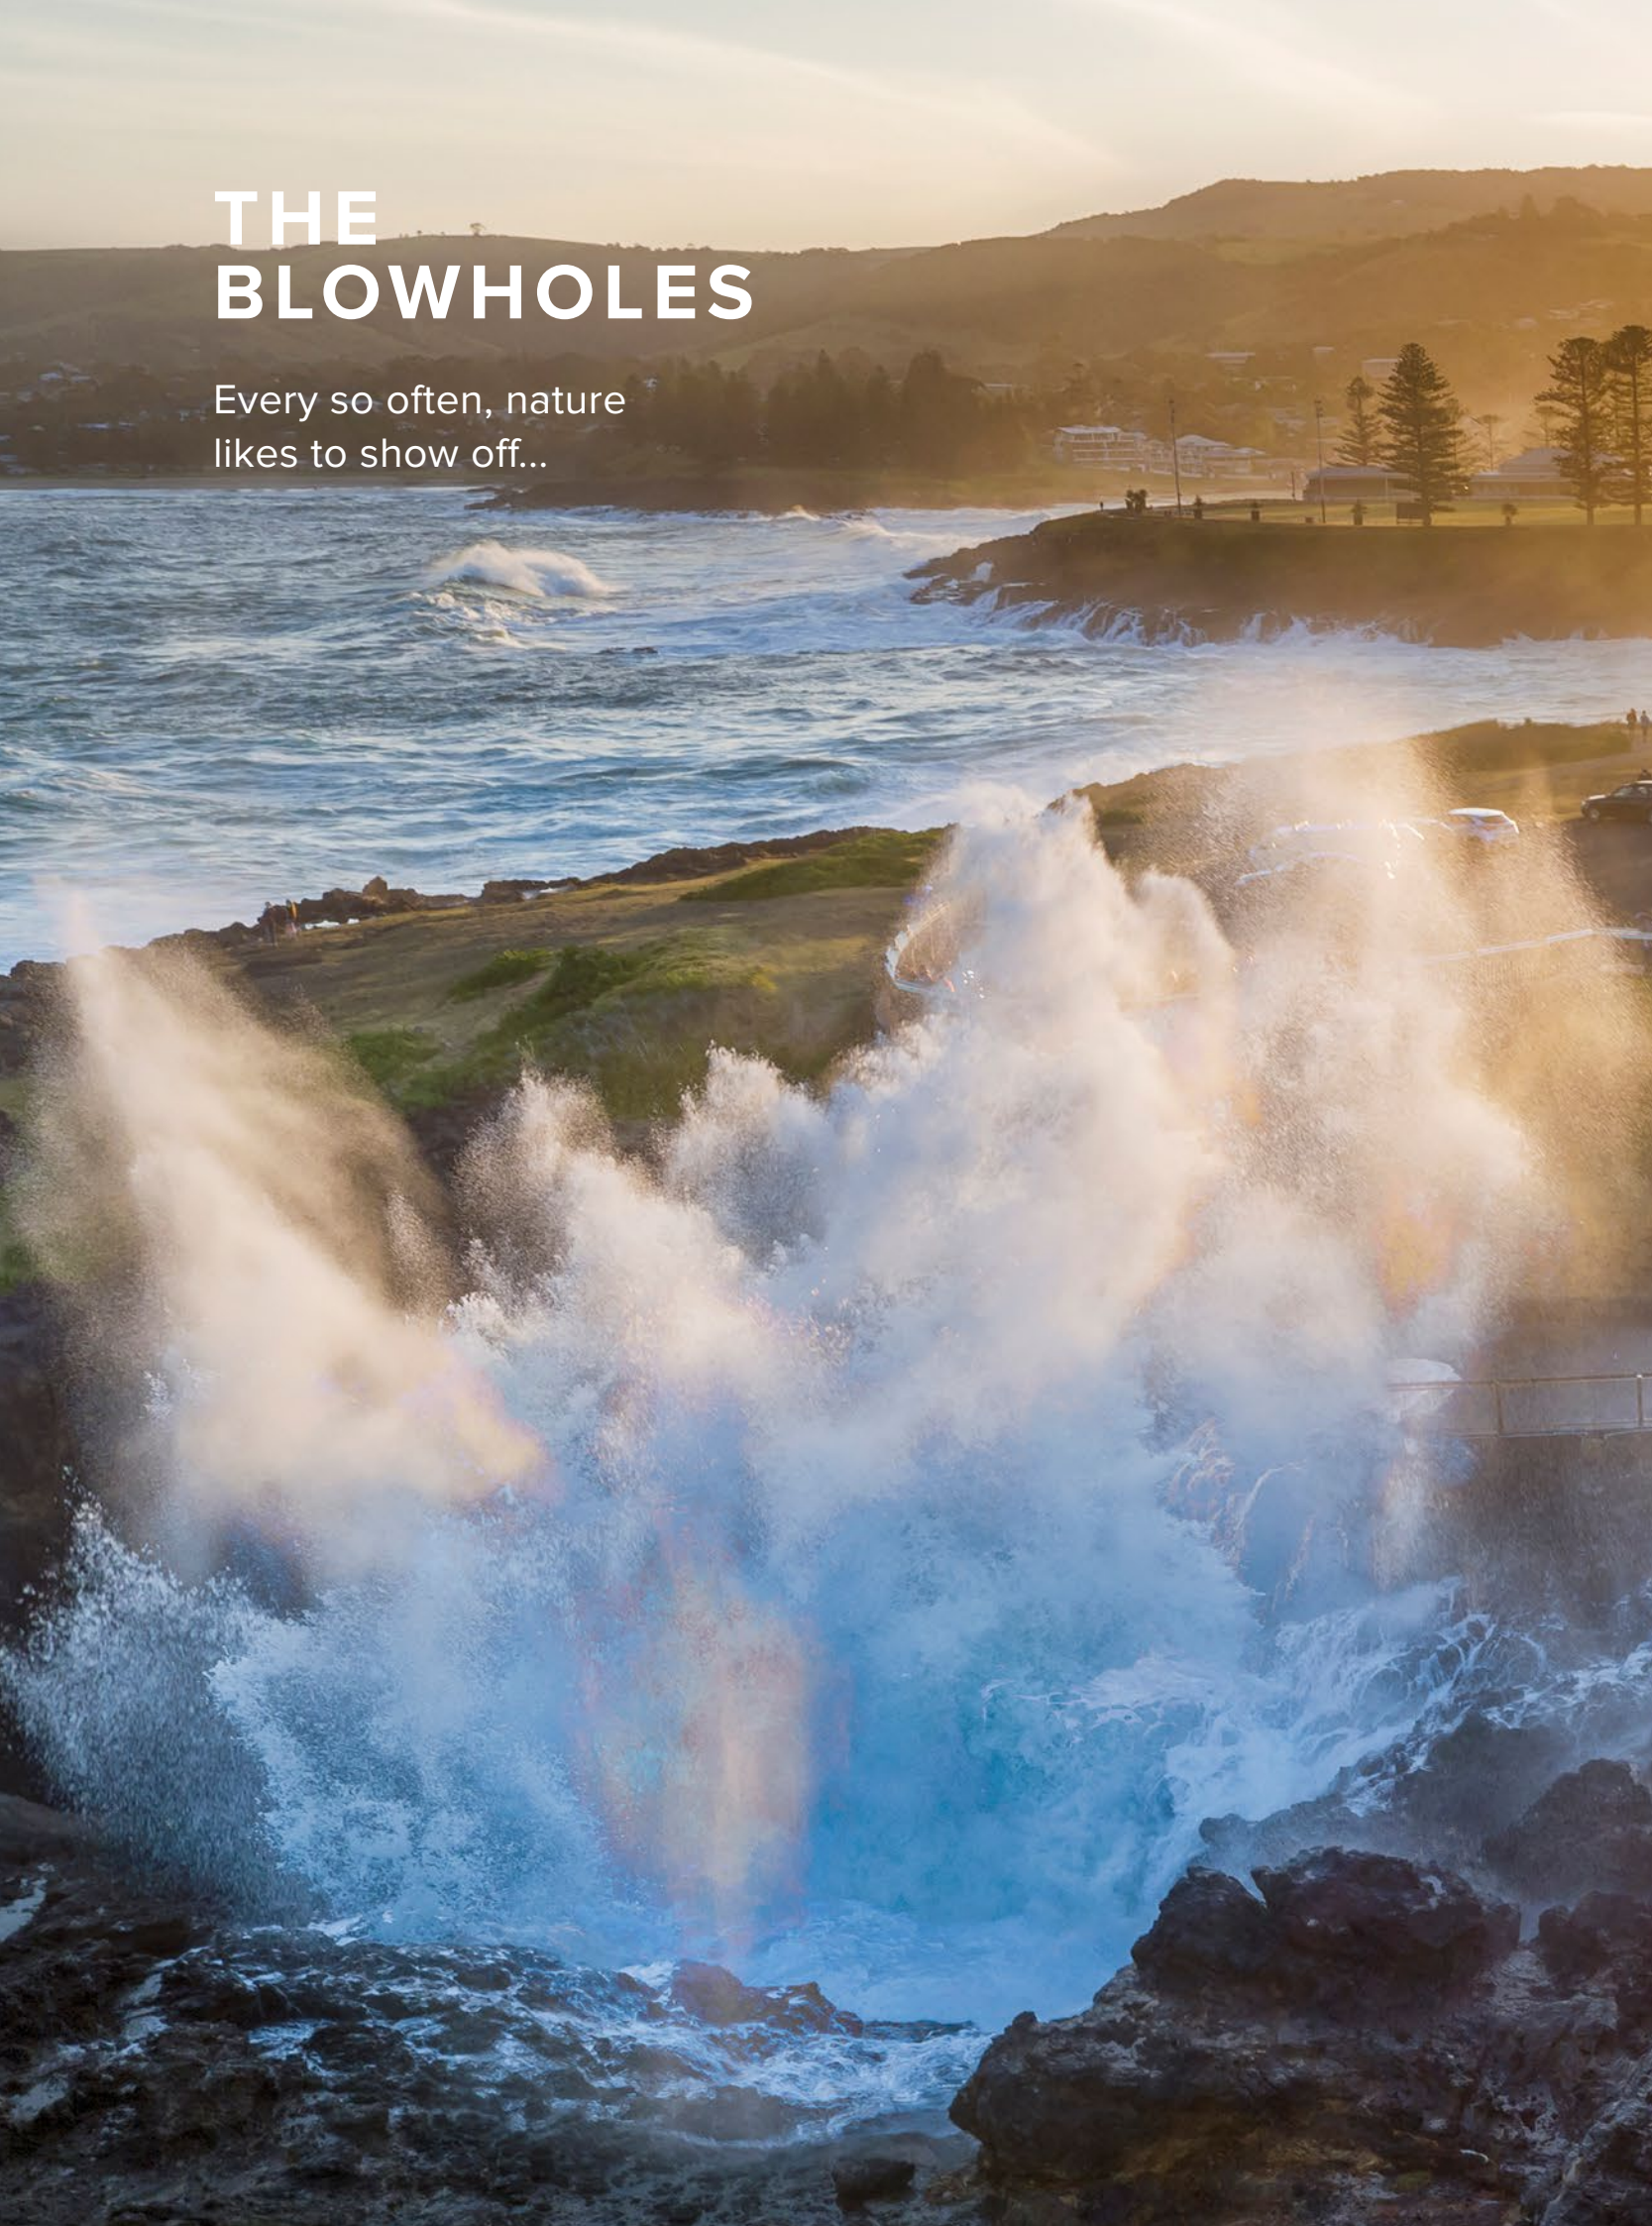

Kiama's boom period of growth took place in the late 1800s – and this included the arrival of rail from Sydney in 1887. For five years, Kiama's station was located at what is now Bombo Station (Australia's closest station to the ocean) before pushing on through tunnels to the current Kiama station, Gerringong, Berry and Nowra in 1893.

THE BLOWHOLES

Every so often, nature likes to show off...

Little Blowhole

For many first-time visitors, Kiama is synonymous with “blowhole”. But how much do you actually know about our famous noisy landmark?

The first thing is that there are in fact TWO, not just one. The larger Kiama Blowhole is located next to the lighthouse. It has a 2.5m wide opening and has been recorded at heights of more than 30 metres (that’s similar to an 8-storey building), often drenching unwary visitors! Meanwhile, about 2km south, the Little Blowhole is arguably more consistent. Small in stature but mighty in nature, you can often hear this section of the coastline before you can see it. You can reach it via the Kiama Coast Walk or drive to Tingira Crescent.

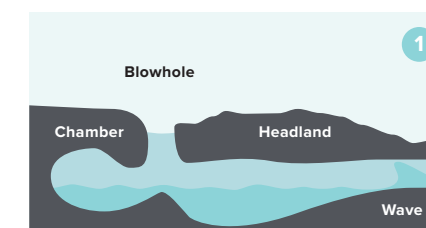

HISTORY LESSON

Just how old are our blowholes? Let’s put it this way — they stopped getting excited about birthdays a LONG time ago! Around 260 million years ago (that’s 100 million years before the dinosaurs), basalt lava flowed into the sea to form these coastal rock formations. Over time, ocean erosion of softer rock inside sea caves created the holes we see today (see diagram).

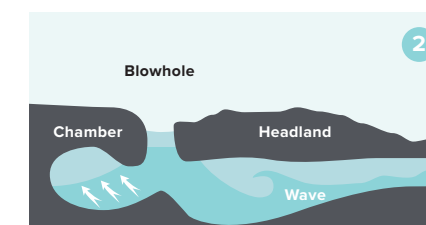

The blowholes were discovered by local indigenous tribes, who called the large one Khanterinte, while one of the translations of the name Kiama is “where the sea makes a noise”. They were first written about in 1797, when George Bass sailed past – the first European to visit the area.

VIEWING THE BLOWHOLES

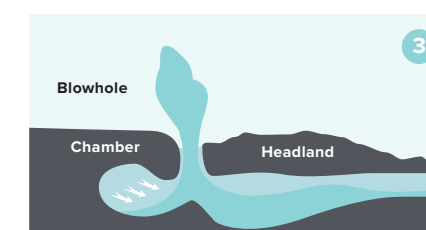

If your friend told you to bring coins to operate the Blowholes, they were joking. This is strictly nature’s show and she can be a fickle mistress. The Blowholes aren’t affected by tides — it’s all about sea swell and wind direction. At the big one, you get the best, ‘whooshiest’ results in a SE wind, while the little one likes to show off in the more common NE wind.

Over time, a long sea cave is hollowed out from a ‘dyke’ (intrusion) in igneous rock known as latite, allowing waves to enter.

Under the right conditions, big waves force their way into the cave, compressing the air inside the rear chamber.

This compressed air acts like a drill, powering the incoming wave vertically – initially forming the blowhole and thereafter forcing water up through it.

Both viewing locations have parking and are paved with access for wheelchairs, strollers, etc. to get up close. Have your camera ready to go — it’s always a great view, regardless of whether nature puts on a show.

Near the Little Blowhole, explore an area of bush regeneration carried out in collaboration with local Aboriginal People. The work here expresses the respect for Aboriginal Dreaming, and the connections between plants, animals, people and their relationship to land.

NOTE: $12.00 park entry fee per vehicle per day.

RAINFOREST LOOP WALK

Time: 45mins Distance: 1.6km Grade: 3 - Medium

Explore the diverse range of plant and wildlife species. The first 500m is suitable for assisted wheelchairs. Last entry 4pm.

THE FALLS WALK

Time: 2hrs Distance: 4.2km circuit Grade: 3/4 - Medium/Hard

A continuation on from the 'Loop Walk', the 2.6 km (return) 'Falls Walk' will lead you safely along the canyon cliff edge to the breathtaking upper Minnamurra Falls. This walk is slightly more challenging than the Rainforest Loop.

Total distance for both walks is 4.2km with the last entry 3pm.

SADDLEBACK MOUNTAIN & HODDLES TRACK

Time: 3hrs return Distance: 8km return Grade: 4 - Hard

Park your car at Saddleback Mountain lookout (6km southwest of Kiama) and follow the signs to Lookout B (the western lookout). Take the fire trail next to the platform, following it down to where the walk starts. From here, the track is marked clearly with green posts up into the escarpment to Mt Noorinan. This track was originally used to transport produce to Kiama for shipping in the 1800s and at one point stretched all the way west to Bowral. Bird watchers should keep an eye out for Crimson Rosellas, Eastern Bristlebirds and the Golden Whistler.

NOTE: The track is steep in places and can become slippery. Wear sensible shoes.

BOMBO HEADLAND

Time/Distance: 1hr return Grade: Medium

A short walk to another world, or at least that's what it feels like as you walk amongst the clusters of hexagonal basalt columns, a legacy of blue metal quarrying in the 1880s and 1900s.

Start out from the carpark at the north end of Bombo Beach and follow the path hugging the coast. This southern side of the headland has been extensively quarried and provides for a very interesting walk. Views to the north include Cathedral Rocks, Minnamurra Headland and Jones Beach. Look south and you can see an impressive view of Kiama and the iconic lighthouse.

HEALTH & WELLBEING

Exhale life's worries away...

Think happy thoughts... think Kiama. It's the kind of destination that doesn't just recharge your batteries, it also rekindles your soul and reconnects you with the things you forgot were important. Simply being here is a great start.

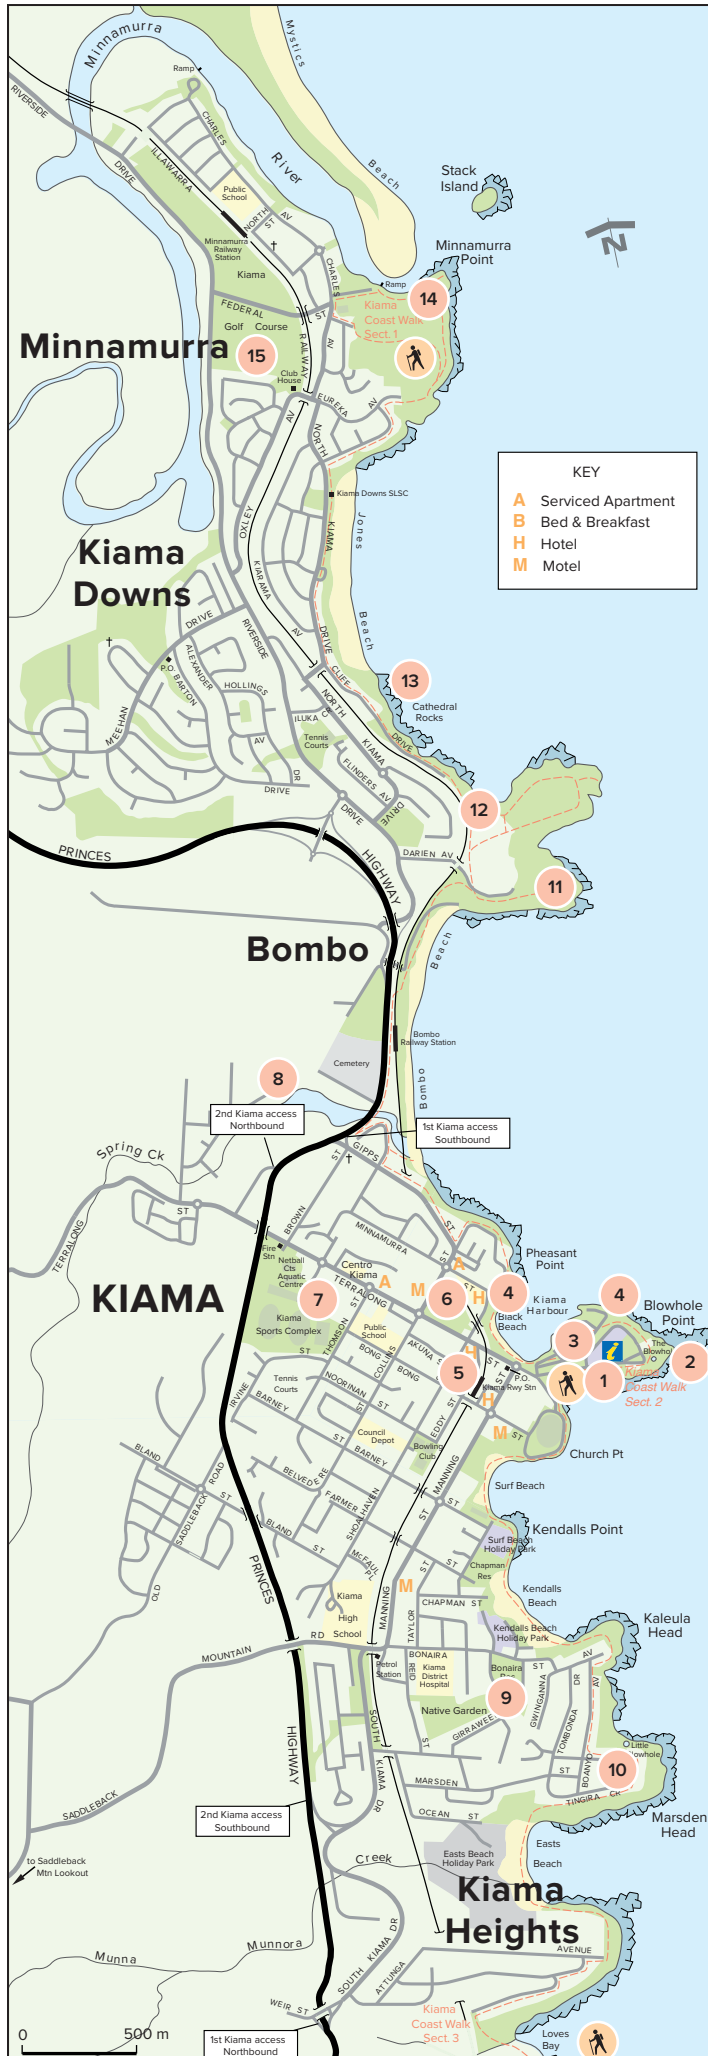

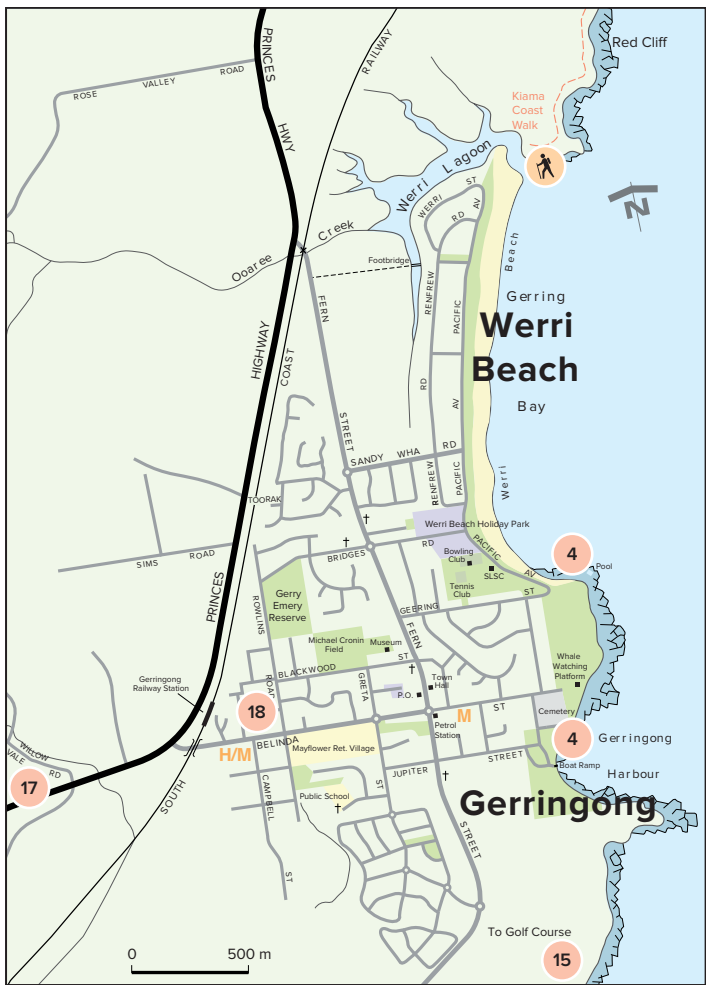

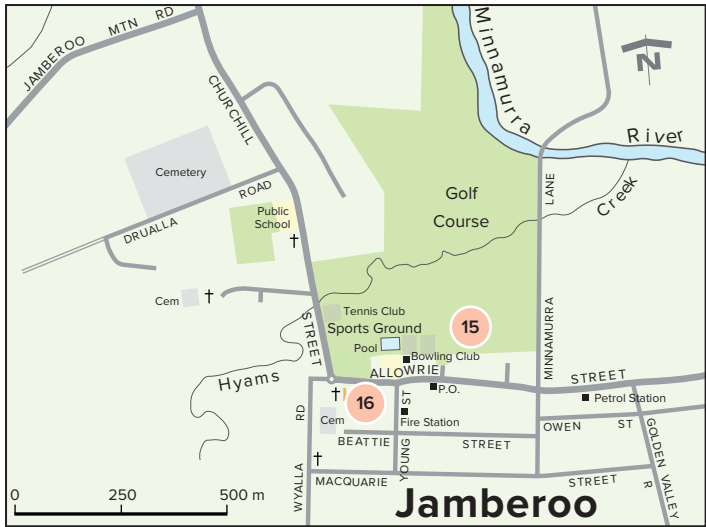

Some call it the "Kiama effect" – that collective sigh and disappearing weight off your shoulders as you leave all your worries a million miles behind you. Others simply call it "getting away from it all" – and we're okay with that one too. So whether your passion is jogging, yoga, writing, fishing, golf, photography or lying in a hammock, we're delighted to play host to your "happy place".

Mixing physical and mental health, The Man Walk initiative started life in Kiama. For this and other mental health initiatives, scan the code.

YOU'LL LOVE:

- ♥ WATCHING YOUR WORRIES FLOAT AWAY: Those worries will quite literally float away in flotation therapy. Or sit back and let nothing tamper with your pamper at one of our day spas, hair and beauty salons or massage therapists.
- ♥ FLEXING YOUR STYLE: Practice Yoga or Pilates by the sea or in one of the local studios. The Kiama Visitor Information Centre has more details.
- ♥ WORKING IT OUT: Work up a sweat and summon happy endorphins at our outdoor fitness machines, jogging paths, gym classes and ocean pools.
- ♥ HITTING BALLS: Keen to relax with a sporty form of recreation? Check out the Essentials on page 64 for details of golf, lawn bowls and tennis venues.
- ♥ TAKING TO THE WATER: If it's a surfboard, check page 16. For paddleboarders, Minnamurra River is perfect. Fishing? There's more details on page 64.
- ♥ GETTING BACK IN TOUCH WITH NATURE: Whether it's one of our amazing walks (page 20-21) or on two wheels (page 34-35), we'll show you why our outdoors are great.
- ♥ WATCHING THE SUNRISE: There's nothing quite like seeing the sun come up above the ocean. Kiama's Blowhole Point and Gerringong's South Werri ocean pool are great spots to enjoy this magical morning moment.
- ♥ DOING ABSOLUTELY NOTHING: Enjoy, with our compliments.

KIAMA FOR CYCLISTS

The most fun you can have on two wheels...

There's just something about the serenity and wind-on-your-face purity of exploring somewhere by bike. It's the 'goldilocks' of paces – slower than a car (and taking you places where they simply cannot go) and faster than walking, allowing you to see more on your travels.

Whether you like your rides long and lycra-clad, bumpy and off road, or the more gentle 'bell and basket' kind, there's a little something for everyone across our region's roads, shared paths and hillsides. And it seems the rest of the world is slowly taking notice – with international quality events becoming a frequent sight (see page 3). Enjoy your ride!

Or simply sign up for L'Étape Australia in December 2021!
